Columbia Law School
U.S. Business Law Academy
July 14 — August 2, 2019

Columbia Law School invites applications to its U.S. Business Law Academy. The program, designed for foreign-trained law students but open to practitioners as well, offers an engaging educational and cultural experience with select topics in U.S. legal institutions and business law taught by preeminent scholars from Columbia and other world-renowned faculties.

The Academy offers an accessible introduction to the Socratic Method, one of the foundations of U.S. legal education, and presentations about LLM programs and strategies used by U.S. law graduates to find jobs. The program also includes practice-oriented lectures by prominent attorneys; networking events with fellow participants; and visits to professional and cultural sites in New York. Overall, the Academy is excellent preparation for those considering furthering their studies in a leading global graduate program.
